NOTE:

1. In case where two or more candidates secured equal total mark, merit/ rank is decided on the written marks with higher written marks being higher in the merit/ rank. If both the written marks and interview marks are the same, then the merit/ rank is decided on the basis of date of birth with the older candidate being placed higher in the merit/rank.
2. As per Para 13 of Chapter 1, Schedule-II of Manipur Civil Services Combined Competitive Examination Rules, 2022, "Candidates belonging to SC/ST/OBC and Physically Disabled Categories who appeared in the examination by resorting to any relaxation/ concessions in the eligibility or selection criteria at any stage of the examination, shall be adjusted against the vacancies reserved for SC/ST/OBCs and Physically Disabled categories even if such candidates are in the merit list. Relaxation/concession means relaxation in the number of attempts, age, and qualifying marks. It will not include concession in examination fee".
3. "Relaxation availed" means those candidates who scored below the last candidate under the UR category (the general qualifying standard) in the Mains (Written) Examination.
