2. The Commission vide its notification of even number dated 26.09.2017 issued a list of candidates who would be called for interview in view of the increase in unreserved vacancies, etc. The methodology to determine the additional candidates is as follows:

All those candidates who are within twice the number of unreserved vacancies in the merit list of the screening test for the subject shall be called for the interview provided that the candidates has not faced the interview earlier.

In case of subjects where there is an increase in OBC (M) or OBC (MP) vacancies, then additional candidates equal to twice the increase number of OBC (M) or OBC (MP) whichever is applicable would be called in addition to additional candidates being invited for the unreserved vacancies.

3. The Commission while notifying the list of candidates, found qualified for interview based on the screening test, on 03.12.2015 treated vacancies of each category as a separate entity and shortlisted candidates twice the number of vacancies for each category irrespective of number of ST/ OBC (M)/ OBC (MP)/ OBC (O) candidate in the candidates shortlisted for the unreserved vacancies.

4. Since the interview process of additional candidates is a continuation of the same recruitment, the Commission has decided to continue with the methodology to shortlist candidates for interview adopted earlier. Accordingly, the new list of candidates to be called for interview and reasons for doing so in respect of each subject is as below:

(i) Chemistry: Earlier top 2 candidates were called for the 1 unreserved vacancy. Now, unreserved vacancy has increased to 7, so the first 14 needs to be called.
